

Dr. Um Hani Idris Ahmed Qasim

The conference for water resources and water security in the Middle East and North Africa under the patronage of secretary general of the area the Arab League for Middle East and North Africa in Istanbul city from 14-16-2016 at Hilton hotel Turkey Middle East. The conference continued for 3 days and different research from different countries from all over the world about the water resources, environment and desert. And water security was discussed. More than 90 research from different districts participated. Dr Um Hani Idris Ahmed Qasim of the department of Geography presented a paper titled "present and future of water security in the Sudan".